

Chinese Cultural Social Group Gathering

When?

Sunday 5/3/08 from 2:00 – 3:30 pm

Who should come?

Families with Asian children or anyone who is interested in learning Chinese culture or better speech-language and hearing

Where? Amitabha Buddhist Library

The address and map to the library can be found at:

<http://www.amitabhalibrary.org/>

Amitabha Buddhist Library in Chicago

2753-2755 W. Maple Avenue

Lisle, IL 60532 Tel: (630) 428-9941

What will we do?

- Icebreaker (families to get to know each other)
- Read a book about Chinese culture and learn manners in Chinese culture
- Tell stories
- Sing songs
- Make crafts
- Networking
- Offer free speech-language screenings for children who speak Mandarin by appointment, please email Stephanie Chang at sf7chang@hotmail.com to schedule or visit www.shinfanchang.com for more information)

Please RSVP via e-mail Stephanie by 4/30/2009. Let her know the number of people (adults, children, and ages of children) who are coming

Please email Shinfan (Stephanie) sf7chang@hotmail.com with any questions

This activity is supported by the following organizations:

Illinois Speech-Language Hearing Association (Multicultural Committee)
American Speech-Language Hearing Association (Asian Pacific Islander Caucus)
Amitabha Buddhist Library in Chicago